

6. THE BALLAD OF THE REBEL JESUS

Brightly ( played as )

Dave Andrews

G D Em

Je - sus Christ was not a Christ - ian. Did - n't want his say that Jes - us touched the peo - ple, strict ob - serv - ers say he taught a gos - pel wealth - y phar - i - sees say he preached non - viol - ence - - the cheek to "turn the

4 C G C

own re - lig - ion. But showed us how to live life beau - ti - fly.
 nev - er touched. He served the ones that o - thers o - nly used.
 nev - er thought of - Be - liefs that would be "good news for - the poor."
 o - ther cheek" - Pre - dicting we'd see the victory of the meek.

7 D G D

They say Took the path of pa - tient ser vice.
 They say that Jes - us loved the peo - ple con - Then they say his assault on the tem - ple - on the he prayed for for - give - ness when they

11 Em C G

In pur suit of love and jus - tice. Then he turned to us and serva - tive lead - ers nev - er loved; He blessed the ones that orth - o - dox who'd be - en bought off - Had the paup - ers at the nailed him for blas - phe - my - - Sett - ing battlers marked by

14 D G

said "Come foll - ow me." "Foll - ow me."
 o - thers had a - bused.
 door crying out for more.
 "fat - wahs" complete - ly free.

18 C G

"Foll - ow me." "Foll - ow me." "Foll - ow me."

THE BALLAD OF THE REBEL JESUS

55 D G

said "Come foll - ow me."

"Foll - ow me." - - - - "Foll - ow me."

60 C G D

"Foll - ow me."

"Foll - ow me."

65 G C

"Foll - ow me."

"Foll - ow me."

He

70 G D G

turned to us and said "Come foll - ow me."